I. Overview of NCATE Accreditation

Scope of NCATE Accreditation

The NCATE accreditation process focuses on the Professional Education Unit, which is defined as the administrative body at a college or university that has primary responsibility for the preparation of school personnel.

The professional education unit must include in its accreditation review All Programs in the institution for the initial and advanced preparation of teachers and other school professionals to work in P-12 settings.
I. Overview of NCATE Accreditation

Standards Driven and Performance Based Accreditation

NCATE applies its Unit Standards to the professional education unit as a whole.

Assessment and evaluation data should be Disaggregated by Program and by off-campus, alternate delivery, and alternative route programs.

Assessment data on candidates must be disaggregated for program and unit review by the States in which candidates are living at the time they take the assessment.
NCATE Vocabulary

- Unit Accreditation vs. Program Review
- Initial Programs vs. Advanced Programs
- Unit Standards vs. SPA Standards
- Candidates vs. Students
- Clinical Faculty vs. Professional Education Faculty
- BOE vs. UAB

Standard 1: Candidate Knowledge, Skills, and Professional Dispositions

Candidates preparing to work in schools as teachers or other school professionals know and demonstrate the content knowledge, pedagogical content knowledge and skills, pedagogical and professional knowledge and skills, and professional dispositions necessary to help all students learn. Assessments indicate that candidates meet professional, state, and institutional standards.

Standard 5: Faculty Qualifications, Performance, and Development

Faculty are qualified and model best professional practices in scholarship, service, and teaching, including assessment of their own effectiveness as related to candidate performance; they also collaborate with colleagues in the disciplines and schools. The unit systematically evaluates faculty performance and facilitates professional development.
II. Elements in Standard 5

5a. Qualified Faculty
5b. Modeling Best Professional Practices in Teaching
5c. Modeling Best Professional Practices in Scholarship
5d. Modeling Best Professional Practices in Service
5e. Unit Evaluation of Professional Education Faculty Performance
5f. Unit Facilitation of Professional Development
Professional Education Faculty

Those individuals employed by a college or university, including

- Graduate Teaching Assistants
- Adjunct Faculty
- Clinical Faculty
- Full-time Faculty
- Part-time Faculty
P-12 School Personnel

- Licensed practitioners in P-12 schools who provide instruction, supervision, and direction for candidates during field-based assignments.
Element 5a focuses on the qualifications of faculty, from both the professional education unit and the partnering P-12 schools. As appropriate in their professional roles, faculty are expected to have:

- Earned doctorates or exceptional expertise
- Appropriate licensure
- Contemporary professional experiences that relate to their assignments and roles
Contemporary Professional Experiences

Meaningful and structured activities in a P-12 school settings within the last five years.

- Structured observation
- School teachers or other school personnel

IV. Areas for Improvement (AFI)

Common Areas for Improvement Cited for Standard 5

5a. Qualified Faculty

- Not all professional education faculty members possess earned doctorates or exceptional expertise that qualifies them for their assignments.

- Not all school faculty members are licensed in the fields that they teach or supervise.

- Not all professional education faculty members have contemporary professional experiences in school settings at the levels that they supervise.
IV. Areas for Improvement (AFI)

5b. Modeling Best Professional Practices in Teaching

- The unit lacks sufficient evidence that professional education faculty members demonstrate thorough understanding of the content they teach and modeling best practices in teaching.

- The unit lacks sufficient evidence that professional education faculty members demonstrate the use of varied instructional strategies and integrate diversity and technology throughout their teaching.
IV. Areas for Improvement (AFI)

5e. Unit Evaluation of Professional Education Faculty Performance

- The unit does not systematically and regularly evaluate professional education faculty members.
- The unit does not systematically and regularly evaluate clinical and part-time professional education faculty members.
- The unit lacks sufficient evidence that faculty evaluations are used to improve teaching, scholarship and service.
IV. Areas for Improvement (AFI)

5f. Unit Facilitation of Professional Development

- The unit lacks sufficient evidence that professional development are provided to address needs based on faculty and unit evaluations.

- The unit lacks sufficient evidence that professional education faculty members are provided with opportunities for professional development.
Target Level Performance

With the implementation of the new accreditation option of Continuous Improvement (CI), NCATE is expecting units to demonstrate movement toward and performance at the target level.
V. Target Level Performance

5a. Qualified Faculty

Possible examples of target-level activities:

- Unit academic and clinical faculty are recognized by their expertise and contributions at local, state, national and internal levels, and are leaders in transforming educator preparation to address the needs of the 21st century schooling.

- Faculty in the professional education unit regularly co-teach classes with P-12 master teachers in professional development school settings and co-conduct action researches that synthesize theory with practice.

V. Target Level Performance

Element 5b. Modeling Best Professional Practices in Teaching

Possible examples of target-level activities:

- Professional education faculty demonstrate leadership in the advancement of teaching through active collaboration with the P-12 schools practitioners and through systematic integration of new knowledge and promising practices into their own instructional practice.

- Professional education faculty exhibit intellectual vitality in their sensitivity to critical issues and diverse needs of teacher candidates and P-12 schools students, actively adopt and adjust instructions and assessments to support candidates learning and enhance student achievement.
